

OAKLEY VILLAS

'Less is More'

Ludwig Mies van der Rohe (1886 – 1969)

Three words, from one of the world's most celebrated architects, sum up the thinking behind Oakley Villas. These three town houses have been designed to showcase contemporary simplicity resulting in compact and stylish homes in a secure environment.

Situated in a quiet one way street on the border of Newlands and Claremont, Oakley Villas is just minutes away from Cavendish Square, with more than 200 stores offering exclusive local and international fashion, cinemas and a selection of premium restaurants. In the other direction, also minutes away, is Newlands Village, home to boutiques, bars and restaurants. It's all here. To cap it all is the Vineyard Hotel, just 200 meters away, acknowledged as the area's de facto home to conferences, and acclaimed for terrace dining, cocktails plus a view to die for.

Home, sweet, secure home ...

Nowadays security must be one of the primary considerations when purchasing a new home. And it's now common knowledge that the premium the market places on security estates will continue to escalate. To that end Oakley Villas is a gated secure town house complex, complete with a security guard 24/7.
